And whereas an Act passed in the Third Year of Your Majesty's Reign intitled this Act for the better enabling Her Majesty to grant the Honour and Manor of Woodstock with the Hundred of Wootton to the Duke of Marlborough and his Heirs in consideration of the constant Services by him performed to Her Majesty and the Publick wherein 'Ye mentioned and recited that the valiant and unparalleled Services of the said Duke to Your Majesty and the Crown of England were well known not only to Your Majesty and all Your Subjects but to all Europe and that the Alliance which Your Majesty's Royal Brother King William the Third of glorious Memory had in a little Time before his Death contracted by the Ministry of the said Duke as His Majesty's Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary to the States General of the United Provinces for procuring the Liberties of Europe against the Ambition of France were immediately after Your Majesty's happy Accession to the Throne by the said Duke then employed [by Your Majesty in the same Character conferred and improved:] and that others were contracted whereby the Confidence which had been desired at the End of the last War was assisted in a stronger and firmer League and that in the First Year of Your Majesty's Reign the said Duke of Marlborough had so well executed his Commission as Captain General and Commander in Chief of Your Majesty's Forces that he not only secured and extended the Frontier of Holland by taking the Towns and Fortresses of Vinlo Barmstedt Steensmaert and Leips but soon obliged the Enemy (who had been at the Gates of Namur) to seek Shelter behind their Lines and in the next Campaign by taking Bon Roy and Lensburg added all the Country between the Rhine and the Meuse to the Conquests of the preceding Year and that in the next Year One thousand seven hundred and four when Your Majesty was graciously pleased to take the Resolution of reviving the Empire from that immediate Ruine to which by the Deference of the Elector of Bavaria it was exposed the Measures which by Your Majesty's Wisdom and Goodness had been devised and concerted were pursued by the said Duke with the utmost Diligence Secrecy and good Conduct leading the Forces of Your Majesty and Your Allies by a long and difficult March to the Banks of the Danube where the said Duke immediately upon his Arrival did attack and force the Bavarians (aided by the French) in their strong Intrenchments at Schellenburgh passed the Danube descended the Country of Bavaria and a Second Time sought the Enemy who had been reinforced by a Royal Army of the French King's best Troops commanded by a Marshal of France and on the Second Day of August One thousand seven hundred and five after a bloody Battle at Blenheim (although the Enemy had the Advantage of Number and Situation) gained the most absolute and glorious Victory as had been recorded in the History of any Age by which Bavaria being entirely reduced and Ratisbon Augsburg Ulm Memmingen and other Imperial Towns recovered the Liberty of the Diet and the Peace of the Empire were restored and Landau Treves and Trierbach being taken the War was carried into the Dominions of France all which happy Achievements of the said Duke apparently tended to the Honour and Safety of Your Majesty and Your Subjects and of their Posterity but also towards the future Tranquillity of Europe and that Your Majesty most dutiful and loyal Subjects the Commons of England in Parliament assembled thought themselves thereupon obliged in an humble Address to Your Majesty to express their Sense of the said glorious Victories and humbly to desire Your Majesty that You would be graciously pleased to consider of [some] proper Means to perpetuate the Memory of such signal Services and that Your Majesty was thereupon pleased to signify Your Intention to grant the Honour and Manor of Woodstock and Hundred of Wootton to the said Duke and his Heirs whereupon at the humble Petition of Your Majesty most dutiful and loyal Commons it was enacted that it should and might be lawful to and for Your Majesty by any Letters Patents under the Great Seal of England to give and grant unto the said John Duke of Marlborough and his Heirs and Assigns for ever all that the said Honour and Manor of Woodstock and the Hundred of Wootton and the Park of Woodstock in the County of Oxon and divers other Mannors Mannors Lands Tenements and Hereditaments in the said recited Act particularly mentioned or described to be held of Your Majesty Your Heirs and Successors as of Your Castle of Windsor in Fee and common Socage by Fealty rendering to Your Majesty Your Heirs and Successors on the Second Day of August yearly for ever at Your said Castle of Windsor One Standard or Colours with Three Flowers de Lys painted thereon for all Manner of Rents Services Exactions and Demands whatsoever in pursuance of which said Act of Parliament Your Majesty by Your Letters Patents bearing Date the Fifth Day of May in the Fourth Year of Your Majesty's Reign was graciously pleased to grant all that the said Honour and Manor of Woodstock and Hundred of Wootton and divers other Mannors Mannors Lands Tenements and Hereditaments in the said Letters Patents particularly mentioned or described to the said Duke of Marlborough his Heirs and Assigns for ever

Further Enactment of the March and Services of the said Duke

And whereas in the Beginning of the Year One thousand seven hundred and five the said Duke of Marlborough led Your Majesty's Forces and those of the Allies to the Danube where by the Progress made in the preceding Year a fair Prospect was afforded of removing the War from the Countries of Your Allies into the Enemy's own Territories but that great Design through unforeseen Accidents was rendered impracticable and the Enemy taking Advantage of the Remoteness of Year and General and the Troops under his Command perceiving the Attacks of the States General which were left for the Defence of their Frontiers with a superior Force On this extraordinary Occasion the Duke showed all the Parts of a great Captain and at the same time the Zeal he had for Your Majesty [George I.] and true Regard to Your Allies by a speedy March he returned to the Mass where a new Force of Affairs immediately appeared and Your Majesty's good Allies the States General were delivered from the Threats they were under. Large was relieved. His resolution and the Enemies obliged to retire behind their Lines which they thought impregnable but the said Duke with a surprising Conduct and Bravery on the Seventh Day of July One thousand seven hundred and five with an insuperable Loss forced the same defeated great Part of the Enemies Forces and obliged their whole Army to a precipitate Retreat and although all the Advantages were not obtained which the Duke had proposed to himself from that Success yet it confirmed the Minds of Your Majesty's Allies and produced that happy Consequence of the Duke's being invested with such a Power as gave him an Opportunity of performing those great Actions which were executed in the last glorious Campaign in which the Enemy confiding in the Superiority of their Army composed of their choicest Troops gave the Duke of Marlborough an Opportunity of attacking them which he did at Ramillies on the Twelfth Day of May One thousand seven hundred and six with such Resolution and Conduct that in Two Hours Time he obtained a most complete and glorious Victory and prevented his Advantage without any Interruption during the whole Campaign. The Battle of Ramillies was followed by the immediate Surrender of Leuwis, Brusch, Malines, Lierre, Gant, Oudenard, Aerschot, Dain, Bruges and Courtray and the taking of Oudenard, Denendermon and Aerschot most of which Places had heretofore enjoyed the greatest Generals whole Campaigns in their Sieges and thus almost the entire Spanish Netherlands which had been contended for so many Ages were conquered in One Summer.
